

Evidence required

You need to provide evidence of ALL names by which you have been known.

Certified copies of one of the following documents are acceptable for proof of identity:

- A full birth certificate (birth extracts are not accepted), or
- A current or expired passport, or
- An Australian naturalisation or citizenship document is only valid for this purpose if it contains your place of birth.

Other names

If you have been known by any other names you will need to provide certified copies of documentary evidence of ALL those names.

For example:

- A marriage certificate, or
- A deed poll, or
- A divorce certificate/order (decree absolute), or
- Other name(s) change documentation.

If you are or have been known by a name for which an official name change has not been made, you will need to provide a statutory declaration clearly stating the name by which you are or have been known.

Providing the documents to the Board

Post your certified documentary evidence to:

Teachers Registration Board of Tasmania
GPO Box 539
Hobart TAS 7001

Or bring your original documents to our office here and we will make a certified copy for you.
